HOPEFUL MESSAGES

From Leadership

"Spreading Hope and Recovery" CEO Steve Miccio

"When I first came to PEOPLE, Inc. in 1999, I was struck and dismayed at how poorly the mental health system operated. People were mostly incarcerated, our psychiatric institutions were still open and thriving, and peer services were marginalized and were not respected. We've been able to create services that are effective, trauma informed, person centered, and compassionate. We have seen other communities begin adopting our practices in our state and nation. This could not have been done without our staff and your support. My hope is that this newsletter will serve as a way to enhance communications by providing information and celebrating wins. With gratitude, I look forward to 2024 and beyond spreading hope."

HOPEFUL MOMENTS

Rose House for the Holidays

"A female guest came to stay at the Rose House after she was kicked out of her home due to challenges with substance use. At the time, she was residing with her significant other and was estranged from her family. She had not spoken to her parents, siblings, or children for years. It was the holiday season when she came to the Rose House, and she was feeling lonely and upset about her current life circumstances. While at the Rose House, the guest built a rapport with the staff and discussed her substance use and the effects it had on her family."
